Bostons Had All the Luck of First Half of Double-Headerwith the Trolley Dodgers in Beantown To-Day.

SCHMIDT PITCHES 2D GAME.

BATTING ORDER.

SOUTH END GROUNDS, BOSTON. Mass., June 17.—The cold weather of the morning toned up a bit for the afteron session between the Boston and Trolley-Dodgers, but the fans remained away just the same and only about 500 spectators were scattered around the stands when Hank O'Day called play. Buckenberger's pets had all the luck in the morning game, Garvin's two passes and a wild pitch being respontible for his defeat. Pittinger was unusually generous with his passes, but the Trolleyites could not get in a hit when one was needed. They had the game pocketed half a dozen times only to let it slip away.

Vic Willis was selected to make it two straight for Boston with Moran to help him out. Hanlon brought out his California find, Schmidt, for introduction to the local fans First Inning.

HERRERA IS NOW BOTHERING BRITT

Conqueror of Kid Broad Would Fight California Light-Weight for $5,000 Side Bet and Says He'll Win.

ween Aurelia Herrera, the Mexican festher-weight, and Jimmy Britt, the light-weight champion of California. The sporting men of Bakersfield, Cal., where Herrera makes his home, are so jubilant over the Mexican's great fighting in the squared circle during the last eight months that they claim they viii accommodate Britt with a side bet of $5,000 if he will agree to fight Herrera. Britt and Herrera were matched to fight some time ago, but owing to a mistake in the weight the match fell through. Herrera is anxious to fight Britt, as he claims he can beat him.

Davies Lust $2,500 on Broad. Parson Davies, the well-known sporting man and manager of fighters, of Chicago, lost $2,500 on Kid Broad by the latter's defeat at the hands of Herrers at Butte, Mont., Saturday. Davies thought sure that Broad would beat Herrera and did not hesitate to bet his money as fast as he could get takers. When Broad was knocked out in the routh round Lavies was the most surprised man at the ring side. "They could have got every dollar I posess in the world," said Davies, "se sure was " that Broad would stop that fellow."

Walcott and "Young Jackson." Joe Walcott and "Young Peter Jackson," the colored cyclone fighter of California, are in perfect shape for their twenty-round bout before the Pastheir twenty-round bout before the Pas-time A. C., of Portland, Orc., to-morow-night This should be one of the best fights ever witnessed in that section of the country. The men hold a bitter grudge against each other, and the prospects are they will try and knock-each other out as quickly as possible. Jackson has improved since he fought Walcott and feels certain he will wrest the title of champion from him in this fight.

Brond Wept After Fight.

When Kid Broad had come to after being knocked out by Herrera on Saturday he stared in astonishment at the crowd that was standing around him and in a low whisper said, "Did I win or was I knocked out?" If am sorry to tell you, Kid, you were put to sleep, said one of his seconds. Broad burst out crying, and between his sobs kept saying that he thought there was not a fighter living that could knock him out. Broad said that Herrera is one of the hardest hitters he ever met in the ring.

Billy Stift, the Chicago middle-weight, has a rather hard task to perform in the Windy City to-morrow night. He is slated to meet Charley Burns, the Cincinnati fighter, in a ten-round bout in private, and in order to get any of the money he will have to stop Burns before the expiration of the tenth round. The men have made a side bet of $100 on the result of the fight.
